Feast of the Holy Family

The Sunday after Christmas is The Feast of the Holy Family. It is an opportunity for us to recall that Jesus was born into a human family and shared in the joys and struggles of family life like all of us.

As we know family life is not easy especially in our contemporary society. May we continue to grow, with God's help and grace, as members of our own human families as well as members of God's family.

The III Extraordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops in Rome this past Fall and the upcoming papal visit to Philadelphia to attend the 2015 World Meeting of Families highlights the Catholic Church's ongoing concern in addressing the challenges and complexities of modern day family life.

*Prayer for the 2015 World Meeting of Families
God and Father of us all,*

*in Jesus, your Son and our Savior,
 you have made us your sons and daughters
 in the family of the Church.
 May your grace and love help our families in every part of the world to be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.
 May the example of the Holy Family,
 with the aid of your Holy Spirit,
 guide all families, especially those most troubled,
 To be home of communion and prayer
 and to always seek your truth and live in you love.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
 Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, pray for us.*

Many Thanks

Your generosity to St. John's Church at Christmas and throughout this past year is greatly appreciated. Our parish is grateful for your financial support of our various pastoral activities, programs, building expenses, charitable outreach, and administrative costs. Many thanks and may God continue to bless us abundantly in the new year ahead.

Did You Know?

"...And a partridge in a pear tree." These words conclude a well-known Christmas song The Twelve Days of Christmas.

However most people are probably not familiar with the origin of this song which was written during the English penal times sometime between 1558 and 1829 as a catechism for young Catholics who were forbidden to practice their faith.

It was designed as mnemonic, a formula to be used as a way to remember. Each number represents a significant article of faith.

The song itself can be understood on 2 different levels:

- 1) a literal meaning of the words which would appear innocuous enough to the average person
- 2) the hidden meaning behind these words which expressed the religious beliefs of a people who could have lost their lives had their allegiance to the Catholic Faith had been known.

The symbols and numbers may be described in terms of the following:

1st Day: A Partridge in a pear tree

Jesus as a mother partridge who feigns injury to decoy predators away from her nestlings. The mother dies to protect her young.

2nd Day: 2 Turtle Doves

The Old and New Testament

3rd Day: 3 French Hens

The gifts of the Magi (gold, frankincense, myrrh)
 The theological virtues of Faith, Hope and Love

4th Day: 4 Calling Birds

The Evangelists: (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John)

5th Day: 5 Gold Rings

The Pentateuch (the first 5 books of the Bible: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy)

6th Day: 6 Geese a-laying

The six days of creation

7th Day: 7 Swans a-swimming

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit (Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, Reverence for the Lord)

8th Day: 8 Maids a-milking

The eight beatitudes in Matthew's Gospel

9th Day: 9 Ladies Dancing

The nine choirs of Angels
 The nine fruits of the Holy Spirit in Galatians 5:22

10th Day: 10 Lords a-leaping

The Ten Commandments

11th Day: 11 Pipers piping

The eleven faithful apostles (minus Judas)

12th Day: 12 Drummer drumming

The twelve Apostles
 The twelve Tribes of Israel
 The twelve articles of belief in the Apostles Creed
 The 12 days of Christmas are the 12 days from Christmas Day (December 25th) to the Feast of the Epiphany (January 6th).

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph December 28, 2014

"...He (Simeon) took him in his arms and blessed God in these words: 'Now, Master, you can dismiss your servant in peace; you have fulfilled your word. For my eyes have witnessed your saving deed displayed for all the people to see; a revealing light to the Gentiles, the glory of your people Israel.’ ... ‘The Lord sets a father in honor over his children; a mother’s authority he confirms over her sons.’”

At the direction of Pope Francis a synod on the family has taken place in Rome. Reflections and reactions have been sought, as the church considers the gift, the needs and the hopes of families in an age when family life has radically changed.

Today we meet the Holy Family of Nazareth. Not unlike ourselves many difficulties and trials came their way. Living as refugees, itinerants, as working laborers, and finally facing trial and condemnation, we can identify with them with the challenges of today.

The prayer of Simeon, part of the night prayer of the church, can be ours as well, as we recognize the presence of the Christ among us during these holidays. It was the Spirit that moved Simeon to take Him in his arms and praise God. May we, as we bring this year to a close, express, as he did, our gratitude for the Lord’s presence in so many ways during this year. May we thank God for support in time of need. May we see the light of Christ in our lives and be that light for members of our family. May we take Him in our arms too.

May our fathers mirror the goodness of Joseph caring for and protecting their children. May our mothers bring the warmth, kindness and understanding of Mary, the heart of the home at Nazareth. May the Christ, born anew in our hearts allow us to live blessed by the presence of God’s grace in our lives. May all the virtues mentioned by Paul in Colossians 3, be manifest in our homes.

SU PALABRA HOY

por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

La Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José 28 de diciembre de 2014

servidor muera en paz, como lo has prometido, porque mis ojos han visto la salvación que preparaste delante de todos los pueblos: luz para iluminar a las naciones paganas y gloria de tu pueblo Israel’ ... ‘el Señor quiere que el padre sea respetado por sus hijos y confirmó el derecho de la madre sobre ellos.’”

Siguiendo las instrucciones del Papa Francisco, un sínodo sobre la familia se llevó a cabo en Roma. Las reflexiones y reacciones se han buscado, mientras la iglesia considera el don, las necesidades y las esperanzas de las familias en una época cuando la vida familiar ha cambiado radicalmente.

Hoy nos encontramos con la Sagrada Familia de Nazaret. Así como nosotros, muchas dificultades y pruebas les esperaban. Vivieron como refugiados, itinerantes, trabajando como obreros, y finalmente encararon juicio y condena; nos podemos identificar con ellos por los retos de hoy en día.

La oración de Simeón, parte de la oración nocturna de la iglesia, puede ser nuestra también, cuando reconocemos la presencia de Cristo entre nosotros durante estos días festivos. Fue el Espíritu que llevó a Simeón a tomarlo en sus brazos y alabar a Dios. Que podamos, ahora que el año se acaba, expresar como él lo hizo, nuestra gratitud por la presencia del Señor de tantas formas durante este año. Que podamos dar gracias a Dios por su apoyo en tiempos de necesidad. Que podamos ver la luz de Cristo en nuestras vidas y ser esa luz para miembros de nuestra familia. Que podamos tomarlo en nuestro brazos también.

Ojalá que nuestros padres reflejen la bondad de San José al cuidar y proteger a sus hijos. Ojalá que nuestras madres traigan el calor, amabilidad y comprensión de María, el corazón del hogar en Nazaret. Ojalá que el Cristo nacido de nuevo en nuestros corazones nos permita vivir bendecidos por la presencia de la gracia de Dios en nuestras vidas. Ojalá que todas las virtudes mencionadas en San Pablo en Colosenses 3 puedan manifestarse en nuestros hogares.

“Simeón lo tomó en sus brazos y alabó a Dios, diciendo: ‘Ahora, Señor, puedes dejar que tu
