Did You Know?

Kneelers used in churches are called prie-dieu derived from the French "pray to God."

You may have noticed the new wooden prie-dieus in our church used for last weekend's celebration of First Holy Eucharist. The new prie-dieus have the letters IHS; these three letters are a sacred monogram based on practice from the early church to use letters from Greek and Latin words as symbols, slogans, and abbreviations. IHS are the first three letters of the name of Jesus in Greek and have become an abbreviation and symbol known as "Jesus Our Savior" or "Jesus, Savior of Humanity."

Father's Day Masses

The parish Masses on Sunday June 17th (Father's Day) will be offered for all fathers, both living and deceased. Please make use of the specially marked envelopes that are available in the church and return them to the parish office by Friday June 15th.

Baby Bottles for Life Campaign

Kindly return the baby bottles with your donations (coins, cash, check) to support Expectant Mother Care Pregnancy Care Centers (EMC) by next weekend at the parish office or at the church. Your gift saves lives. Expectant Mother Care empowers girls and women in the NYC area to courageously choose motherhood, and by helping support her and her unborn child, EMC honors the sanctity of every human life. EMC is grateful for whatever you are able to give.

¿Sabías?

Los rodilleros utilizados en las iglesias se llaman prie-dieu, derivado de los franceses "orar a Dios".

Es posible que haya notado los nuevos prie-dieus de madera en nuestra iglesia utilizados para la celebración de la Primera Comunión el pasado fin de semana. Los nuevos prie-dieus tienen las letras IHS; estas tres letras son un monograma sagrado basado en la práctica de la iglesia primitiva para usar letras de palabras griegas y latinas como símbolos, lemas y abreviaturas. IHS son las primeras tres letras del nombre de Jesús en griego y se han convertido en una abreviatura y símbolo conocido como "Jesús, nuestro Salvador" o "Jesús, Salvador de la Humanidad".
