Parish Lenten Retreat Day Next Sunday

Mark your calendars for the afternoon of March 29th (Palm Sunday) for the opportunity to view the highly acclaimed 2004 movie, The Passion of Christ, as a spiritual way to enter into the journey of Holy Week. Viewings will be held at 12:45 pm (English subtitles) and 3:00 pm (Spanish subtitles) in the lower Church meeting room. Given the nature of this film and its depiction of Jesus' passion and death, the movie is intended for a mature audience and not suited for younger viewers. Our pastoral year seminarian, Mr. Anthony Giacona, will be offering reflections and thoughts in preparation for Holy Week and Reconciliation Monday to be held on March 30th.

Reconciliation Monday

St. John's Parish will be joining other parishes throughout the Archdiocese of New York and the Dioceses of Brooklyn and Rockville Center in offering opportunities for individual confessions on Monday March 30th from 3:00 to 9:00 PM. The availability of the Sacrament of Reconciliation on the Monday of Holy Week is a spiritual way to experience God's love, mercy, and forgiveness in preparation for the celebration of the Paschal Triduum and the Easter season.

Our parish's celebration of Reconciliation Monday will begin with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the lower church at 3:00 pm, Eucharistic adoration throughout the afternoon and evening, and will conclude with Benediction prior to 9:00 pm. Consider accepting the invitation of Lord to his disciples: "Could you not keep watch with me for one hour?" (Matthew 26:40) along with experiencing sacramental forgiveness on Reconciliation Monday.

Easter Flowers

Specially marked envelopes are available in the church for those who wish to donate with the upcoming decoration of both the upper and lower church for Easter with lilies and flowers.

From The Society of St. Paul

Brother Joshua Seidl, SSP sends gratitude and appreciation to our parish for recently hosting the Parish Book Exhibit on the weekend of February 28-March 1. He noted "how well the parishioners responded to the availability of Catholic books and how well the St. John's staff promoted the Book Exhibit. This positive and enthusiastic response reflects the pastoral mission of the clergy and Religious Education Staff in promoting RCIA, scripture study and similar programs in continuing faith growth and education. People hunger for the Word as they do for the Eucharist. Thank you."

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Fifth Sunday of Lent

March 22, 2015

“Some Greeks... came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him ‘Sir, we would like to see Jesus.’ Philip went and told Andrew, then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, ‘The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified’... ‘And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.’”

Our world today is marked by networking. One knows someone else, a good word is offered, we get a foot in the door, and success follows. The first step though is ‘who you know.’

Such was the case in the gospel event. Foreigners approached Philip, who turned to Andrew, and the consultation was made. John’s gospel once again refers to ‘His hour’ and Jesus tells us the voice spoke for our benefit.

What does it say? We are not unlike the pagan who approached Philip, but we do know to whom to turn. We have countless opportunities to see Jesus. We find Him in the Eucharist, inviting us to adoration. We find Him in the sacraments where He reaches out to touch us. We find Him in the poor, the marginalized, the ‘least of His brothers and sisters.’

‘Sir, I too would like to see Jesus.’

SU PALABRA HOY

por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma

22 de marzo de 2015

“Unos griegos ... le dijeron a Felipe: ‘Señor, queremos ver a Jesús’. Felipe fue a decirselo a Andrés, y ambos se lo dijeron a Jesús. El les respondió: ‘Ha llegado la hora en que el Hijo del hombre va a ser glorificado.’ ... ‘y cuando yo sea levantado en alto sobre la tierra, atraeré a todos hacia mí.’”

Nuestro mundo moderno consiste de una red de contactos. Fulano conoce a sutano, se ofrece una recomendación, metemos el pie en la puerta, y se consigue el éxito. El primer paso es ‘un conocido’.

Tal fue el caso en el evento del evangelio. Unos extranjeros se acercaron a Felipe, quien en vez le habló a Andrés, y se hizo la consulta. El evangelio de Juan se refiere una vez más a ‘La Hora’ y Jesús nos dice que la voz habló para nuestro beneficio.

¿Qué nos dice? Que no somos diferentes al pagano que se acercó a Felipe, que sí sabemos a quién buscar. Tenemos incontables oportunidades de ver a Jesús. Lo encontramos en la eucaristía, invitándonos a adorarlo. Lo encontramos en los sacramentos donde El se acerca a tocarnos. Lo encontramos en los pobres, los marginalizados, ‘en el más pequeño de sus hermanos’. ‘Señor, yo también quiero ver a Jesús.’
