Making All Things New Update

The Archdiocesan Pastoral Strategic Planning Process for parishes is now at the consultative stage where the preliminary recommendations created by the Archdiocesan Advisory Group at their March Retreat for our Cluster 26 (Riverdale/Kingsbridge region) are now being reviewed and discussed by the cluster core team members of the four parishes (our parish along with Visitation Parish, St. Gabriel's Parish, and St. Margaret of Cortona Parish).

The cluster core team members will be providing feedback and reactions to the preliminary recommendations. No actions or final decisions are being made at this time. A response from our cluster will be sent back to the Archdiocesan Advisory Group that will meet in late June to review all Cluster responses at a second planning retreat and they will prepare their final recommendations that will be sent to Cardinal Dolan. In September, Cardinal Dolan will announce his final decisions so that the implementation process for Making All Things New can begin.

Your continued prayers for the Archdiocese of New York during this time of pastoral planning for the future are greatly appreciated.

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Fifth Sunday of Easter
May 18, 2014

“It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the word’... They presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them. The word of God continued to spread,”... “I am the way and the truth and the life.”

Times were tough then as they are now. Challenged by the needs of the people, those whom we now call deacons were summoned to preach the gospel in word and deed. St. Benedict taught his monks in the Rule, that when one was called from prayer to serve the material needs of others, it was part of ongoing prayer.

Deacons today serve well as preachers, ministers at liturgy, ministers for some sacraments and ministers of charity. They, through their witness and example, lead others to Jesus, the Way, a route to be taken, the Truth, providing His teaching, and the Life, the grace which flow from the sacraments. In a single word, deacons are ministers of service.

All disciples of the Lord are called to diaconal ministry as we serve, not in ordained ministry, but through word we witness and both anticipate and respond to the needs of others. Consider those who provide for the corporal works of mercy and discover the Acts of the Apostles being lived out today.

SU PALABRA HOY

por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

Quinto Domingo de Pascua
18 de mayo de 2014

“No es justo que descuidemos el ministerio de la Palabra de Dios para ocuparnos de servir las mesas. Es preferible, hermanos, que busquen entre ustedes a siete hombres de buena fama, llenos del Espíritu Santo y de sabiduría, y nosotros les encargaremos esta tarea. De esa manera, podremos dedicarnos a la oración y al ministerio de la Palabra,” ... Los presentaron a los Apóstoles, y estos, después de orar, les impusieron las manos. Así la Palabra de Dios se extendía cada vez más.” ... “Yo soy el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida.”

Eran tiempos difíciles, tal como lo son ahora. Retados por las necesidades del pueblo, aquellos que ahora llamamos diáconos fueron llamados a predicar el evangelio en palabra y obra. San Benito enseñó a sus monjes la Regla, que cuando uno es llamado en oración a servir las necesidades materiales de otros, es parte de la oración continua.

Diáconos hoy sirven como predicadores, ministros de la liturgia, ministros de algunos sacramentos y ministros de caridad. Ellos, a través de su presencia y ejemplo, guían a otros a Jesús, el Camino, una ruta a tomar, la Verdad, proveyendo Sus enseñanzas, y la Vida, la gracia fluye de los sacramentos. En una palabra, los diáconos son ministros de servicio.

Todos los discípulos del Señor son llamados a ministerio diaconal como nosotros servimos, no como ministros ordenados, sino a través de la palabra de la que somos testigos, y ambos anticipamos y respondemos a las necesidades de otros. Considere aquellos a los que proveemos obras de misericordia corporal y descubra los Hechos de los Apóstoles tomar vida hoy.
